これから読む英文は、中学生の健（Ken）が、学校新聞を作るために、動物園で働いているブラウンさん（Ms. Brown）にインタビューをしているときのものです。この英文を聞いて、(1)、(2)の問いに答えなさい。なお、英文は2回読みます。英文を聞く前に、まず、(1)、(2)の問いを読みなさい。（間30秒）では、始めます。

Ken : First, could you tell me why you decided to work in the zoo, Ms. Brown?

Ms. Brown : OK. I started working in the zoo because I love animals. When I was small, my father often took me to the zoo. That made me a big fan of animals, especially elephants. Now I feel happy to take care of the elephants.

Ken : Nice. Do you have any stories that made you happy in this zoo?

Ms. Brown : Yes. You know, there is an elephant named Taro in this zoo. When he was born, his mother couldn't give him milk well.

Ken : What did you do then?

Ms. Brown : I tried to give Taro milk from a bottle, but he didn't drink it at first. Giving milk to baby elephants is not easy. Actually, baby elephants only drink milk when they feel safe. So I did many things for Taro. For example, I played with him in the water and slept with him at night. I was so happy when he finally drank a lot of milk from the bottle.

Ken : That's great. Finally, could you give a message to the students in my school?

Ms. Brown : Sure. I think it's good to come to the zoo and see animals with your own eyes. You can find many interesting animal facts that you can't learn from books or TV.

Ken : Thank you for your time today.

Ms. Brown : You're welcome.
